NANOPIXEL

- Middle C++ Dev -

Responsibilities:

Design, build and maintain reliable, highly efficient and reusable C++ code

• Improve and expand upon existing code in complex high-performance systems

• Collaborate with engineers to develop new product features and functions with clean, maintainable code

• Present, build and implement ideas for the technical improvement of the software,

its server and other functionality components

• Proof and maintain code quality through best practices and code testing

• Identify bugs and bottlenecks and build sustainable solutions for them

Requirements:

• 3+ years experience with C++11 or newer (Linux and macOS)

• Ability to learn and implement new knowledge

• Strong understanding of relational databases

• Understanding fundamental design principles behind scalable applications

• Implementing unit tests/integration test

• Proficient knowledge of GIT

• Technical English level: Intermediate or higher